

No sell-off: What you can do

Office of Greens NSW MP John Kaye
January 2008

Get Informed: For information and resources about what is wrong with privatisation visit the Greens campaign website at www.john.greens.org.au/no-sell-off or the Unions NSW campaign website at www.stopheselloff.org.au.

Support the 26 February Stop the Sell-Off Rally outside NSW Parliament: Join Greens members, workers and community groups at 11am on Tuesday 26 February outside NSW Parliament, Macquarie St Sydney. Organised by Unions NSW.

Join the campaign: Stay informed about the Greens campaign and sign up to receive action alerts by contacting the office of Greens MP John Kaye by phone: 02 9230 2668 or email: john.kaye@parliament.nsw.gov.au. Join the Unions NSW campaign by visiting www.stopheselloff.org.au.

Get the word out: Update your local group website. Talk to your friends, family and workmates about why the electricity industry needs to stay in public hands.

Hold stalls: Contact the office of John Kaye for resources that can be used for stalls and meetings.

Write letters: Keep the pressure up in the local media by writing letters to the editor.

Get signatures for the No Electricity Privatisation petition: Copies on the Unions NSW petition are available from www.stopheselloff.org.au.

Poster your community and workplace: A3 posters and 'Public Power Not Private Profit' pole posters are available for local groups from the office of John Kaye.

Organise a public forum: The Greens' campaign has speakers and resources available to support forums in your local area. Contact the office of John Kaye for details.

Move a motion at your local community, environment or club: A suggested motion is available from www.john.greens.org.au/no-sell-off.

Make a banner to hang in your local area: Hanging a banner from a bridge or a visible house balcony is a great way to get the message out.
